

Save the Date! It's that time again!

The Annual Women in Leisure Services Golf and Bunko Tournament is around the corner. This year's Putt n' Roll event will change up the event by replacing the formal golf tournament with a MINIATURE GOLF competition! That's right, now there is no excuse for the young professionals not to join the fun on the green. And, as always, if golf is not your thing there will be plenty of action at the Bunko tourney. So, save the date to come out and play on April 22, 2010. More details to follow.
