Women in Leisure Services, WILS Gamma Chapter

WILS is a national organization for professional women involved in the delivery of leisure and community services in private, commercial and municipal settings. A network of chapters serves administrators, supervisors, educators, therapists and armed forces professional in defined geographic areas throughout the country.

"How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world."
-Anne Frank

The organization was founded in 1935 as Chi Kappa Rho by Helen I. Pontius, a recreation professional in Los Angeles, California. The original name was derived from three Greek letters XKP symbolizing:

X character
K knowledge
P recreation

Objectives

Meetings, educational workshops and networking programs occur monthly from August to May. Gamma Chapter Objectives are:

- To provide a forum for women to exchange ideas in order to keep updated on industry trends.
- To develop training programs for professional and personal development.
- To offer recognition and advancement for women in the leisure and community services profession.
- To foster friendships, self-enrichment and a member network for professional assistance.
